§ 38-1. (Reserved) ¹

§ 38-2. False alarms.

- A. The term "false alarm" as used in this section shall mean any emergency message or signal which is transmitted, directly or indirectly, to a law enforcement or emergency services agency, and to which law enforcement or emergency services personnel respond, and which signal is not the result of a robbery, burglary, other crime, fire or emergency. An activated alarm signal which is promptly followed by a call to the law enforcement or emergency services agency properly giving notice that the signal is to be disregarded shall not constitute a false alarm.
- B. The owners and adult occupants of any premises from which a false alarm is issued shall be subject to punishment by fine as stated hereinafter:
 - (1) First through fourth false alarm in any calendar year: no penalty.
 - (2) Fifth through 10th false alarm in any calendar year: $50 for each such false alarm.
 - (3) Each additional false alarm in any calendar year: $100 for each such additional false alarm.
- C. Failure of any owner or occupant to pay a fine imposed by this section within 30 days after receipt of written notice of the same shall subject such person to an additional fine of $250 for each week such violation continues.

¹. Editor's Note: Former § 38-1, Audible alarms, was repealed 5-3-2006 by L.L. No. 2-2006.
